

Class List AMHA

Please note that many of these classes will not fill. Classes that usually run are in the larger font and those that do not fill or have only 1 horse in them are in a smaller font. This is not to discourage people from entering the smaller font classes but to let everyone know that the show will not run all day and we will be skipping blocks of classes. Note the color coding on the left. You can see this on the website at NEMHS.org
